Yesterday

Baker, Oregon, in the early 1900's what a heyday in its time remember the old locomotives ghostly, whistles haunting the line. Gold discoveries brought prospectors searching for fortunes in the ground men with mules and a pack barely lived on what they found. Culture was seen in the opera house the mail wagon brought good news general stores they had back then carried anything from food to shoes. Time has passed, progress came the Twenties and two world wars we landed and walked on the moon things they only dreamed of before. Glenn Miller and Tommy Dorsey Elvis and Beattlemania of yesterday looking back, it's been quite a past and we can't let it fade away.

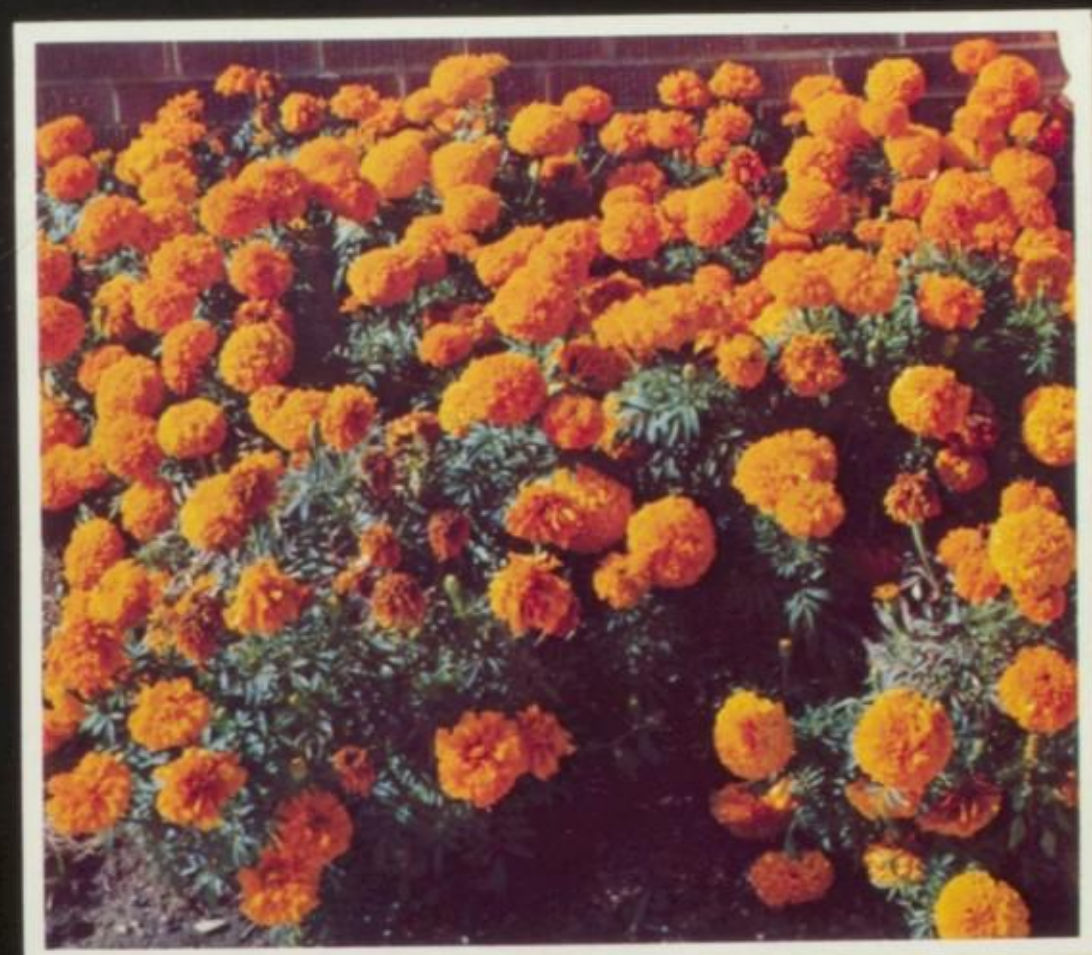

K.D. Adair

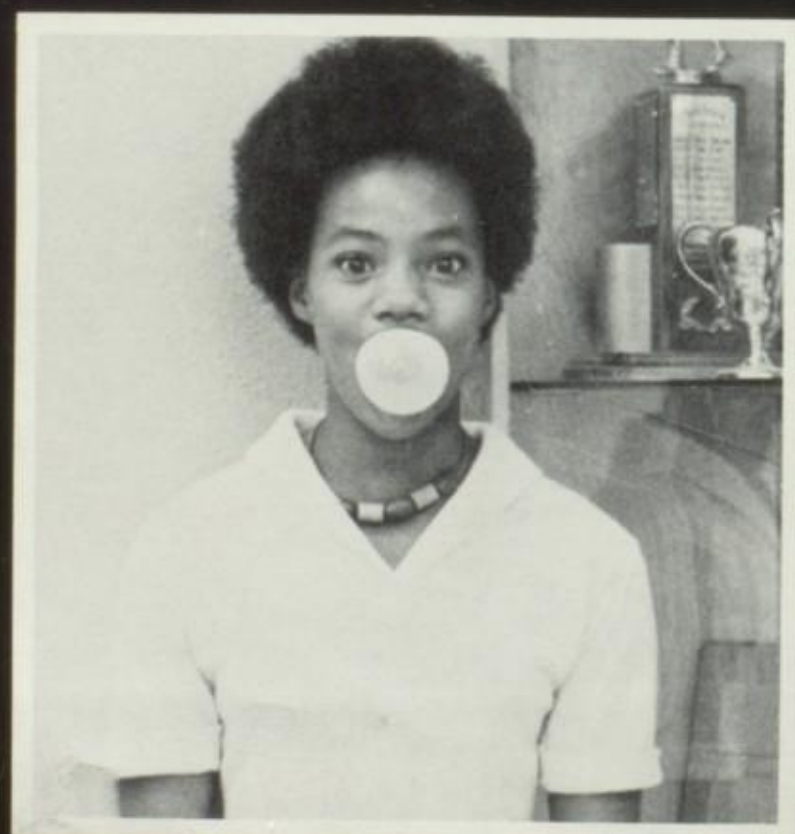

Looking back
it's been quite a past

Today's faces

The bittersweet promise of a new day was upon us.

It came with the breeze that arrived at dawn
And with the sun as it shouted its existence with rays the colors of a rainbow.

It showed itself in the rooster's crowing and
In the busy activities of life all around.

just beginning to wind up another time.

And who has set this clock for us?

Who tells it when to stop or start?

This momentum of time, is it forever or just the whispered promise of today?

Can this momentum be held in our hands

And savored forever so we may taste each minute at a time

Like so many ants upon a honeycomb

With nothing to look forward to but tomorrow's harvest?

Momentum of time, slow down you snowball

Rolling down a mountain, speeding up

Gathering all you can take with you until the momentum is gone.

K. D. Adair

Today promises excitement

Tomorrow

Unknown, experiencing, seeking the way from the lessons we learn today
Friends we meet, places we go dreams we dream, tomorrow may never know
those we thought young, playing in swings
tomorrow may be wearing wedding rings
Older folks with wrinkled hands may be living tomorrow in a distant land
Flowers we see blooming today will soon lose life and wither away
It doesn't take long for time to fade and for tomorrow to become today
There will always be dreams for tomorrow to hold
but they're secrets only it will know until tomorrow is in view live each day, as they're given to you.

Seniors get together in '76

The Junior class officers get together to discuss various activities taking place in school. The officers from left are Mike Hopkins, boy delegate; Kelly Bunch, girl delegate; Scott Warner, president; Beth Harrell, secretary; Troy Phillips, delegate at large; and Amy Burgess, vice president. Not pictured is Grace Leake, treasurer.

The junior class' biggest concern is the junior/senior prom, which is put on each year by the juniors for the seniors. The theme this year was "Pirates Paradise." The junior class worked hard and put on a very successful dance.

Some other activities the junior class undertook were selling tickets for the Western Jamboree and sold tickets for the Thespian plays. They also sold concessions during the noon hours and at football games, and sponsored the GAA Basketball Tournament.

Junior class officers also participated in Parliamentary Procedure and helped with the Commencement exercises.

Sophomores take charge

The sophomore class was in charge of building the bonfire. Students from the class stored the boxes until the night of the bonfire, then brought the boxes to the National Guard Armory for the building of the fire.

The sophomores also put on a fall dance to make money for the Spring Fling. They decorated the dance to the theme, "I've Got a Name."

The Spring Fling put on annually by the sophomores was held April 10. The theme was "Dream Weaver" and music was played by the Riley Brothers of Sweet Home, Oregon.

Students get involved in various activities

During the year 1975-76 BHS had lots of extra curricular activities for the students.

Some of the new clubs that were started this year were Ski Club and Future Business Leaders of America.

Some of the other organizations were American Field Service, Letter Club, Girls' Athletic Association, Hi-Y, Rifle Club, Rodeo Club, Future Farmers of America, Photography Club, Thespians, Log, Nugget, and Pep Club.

These activities were very helpful to the students in getting them involved with their school and in giving them responsibilities to get them better prepared for life after high school.

Student Council makes new friends

The 1975-76 Student Council started off well by showing freshmen, sophomores, and new students around the high school on registration day.

Included in some of their activities, the student council sponsored the painting of the Bulldog on the new gym wall, the annual canned food drive, and a litter clean-up campaign.

For the Bicentennial year, they painted the senior citizens benches around town red, white, and blue; sold Bicentennial pins; and painted a Bicentennial theme on the window above the main entrance to BHS.

Student body money making projects included having baked food sales, and during the summer they sold popsicles in the rain to raise money.

Top: The Bulldog sign, painted by Mr. Elden Moore, is located on the south wall of the new girls gym.

Pep Club turns to pie baking, poster making

The 1975-1976 Pep Club was busy this year. Their first job was getting Guardian Angels for all the guys on the football team. They made posters for the team, surprised the guys with goodies on the days they were to play in games, plus made a couple of large bulldog posters for the team to break through at the end of the field.

The girls took tickets and handed out programs at the games, and were in charge of Pep Night. Some of their other activities included the pie-eating contest and the cutest baby contest, which were held during the basketball season.

The club went on two trips. One was to football game in Ontario, the other was to a basketball game in Hermiston. Miss Barbara Cash was the advisor for the group of nearly 100 girls. The president was Kathy Cantrell; vice-president, Karla LeaMaster; secretary, Karen Kolb; and the treasurer was Heather Vaughan.

Page 91, right: Senior Don Curtis listens intently for the signal to begin the contest. Far right: Junior Kent Clark deposits a penny for a vote in the cutest baby contest. 'Cutest Baby' contestants were all the senior basketball players. Tony Evans won the contest. GAA not as active Girl's Athletic Association, GAA is for girls who want to get involved in sports. The activities sponsored are swimming, volleyball, basketball and bowling. Swimming and basketball were the only completed events. At the intermural basketball tournament the Donald's Ducks won. The other teams were Mark's Sparks, Semi Pro's and Dodson's Doobies. In bowling the winners were Margie Mahugh, Cindy Christensen and Linda Ramsey.

Nugget works hard for '76

The Nugget Staff got off to a good start this year after a short orientation. Everyone worked hard, designing and selling ads, and drawing page layouts.

The editor was Donita Entermille, assistant editor was Jeannie Heaton, business manager was Donna Tholen and Mrs. Janet Groat, the advisor, supervised the entire group.

The responsibility of the clubs section was JoAnn Corley's. Patti Stephens and Karla McLaughlin were in charge of the special events, sophomore and freshman section and theme. Sonja Bowers was in charge of the senior section and senior accomplishments. Lori Sorensen was in charge of the junior section and senior awards.

Donita Entermille did the faculty section and theme as well as helping most everyone. The sports section was done by Mike Castoldi and Debbie Sharp. The dark room technicians included Debbie Pilcher, Carey Wright, and Dave Duncan. Kathy Schrader and Joann McMillan helped with individual pages and interviewed club officers for copy.

and Patti Stephens. Next row: Mike Castoldi, Lori Sorensen, Deb Pilcher, and Dave Duncan.

'The Log' moves to new room

Because of the large staff, "The Log" was able to produce a bigger newspaper than last year. The graduation issue was sixteen pages. They also had advertising in each of the eleven issues this year.

This was the first year in the new journalism room which included a large modern dark room off the main room.

"The Log" attempted to have Bicentennial stories by interviewing teachers and people of the community who had graduated from Baker High. Mrs. Janet Groat was the advisor for The Log.

Thespians in play, musical

Right: Heather Himmelsbach, a freshman, and Hunter Smith, a sophomore, rehearse their parts for the play, "David and Lisa".

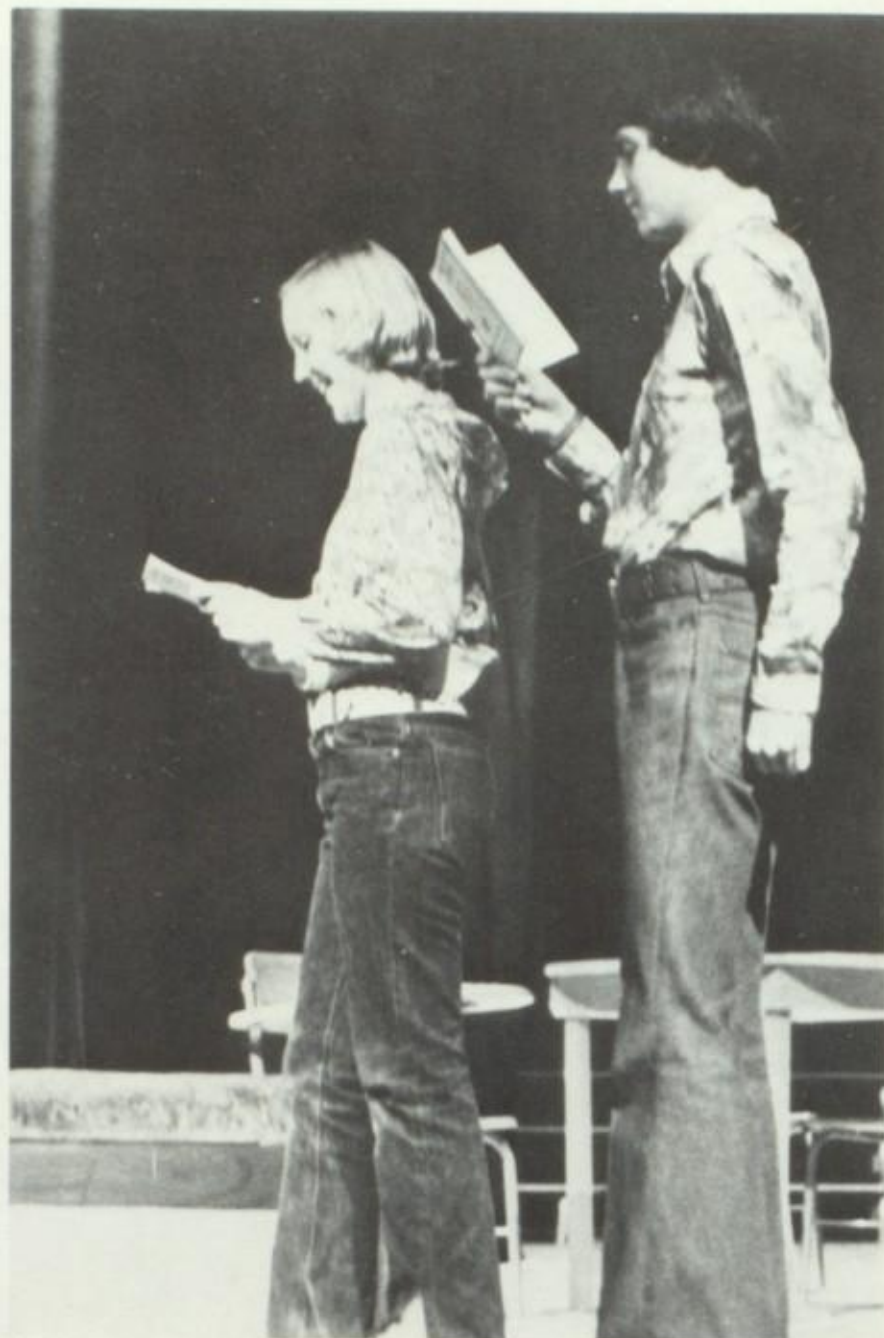

This year the Thespians helped in producing two plays; David and Lisa, a dramatic play, and a musical The Music Man. They held the annual Sadie Hawkins dance which was combined with the Pep Club. And this year they had a little skit they put on during intermission of the Homecoming game at football time.

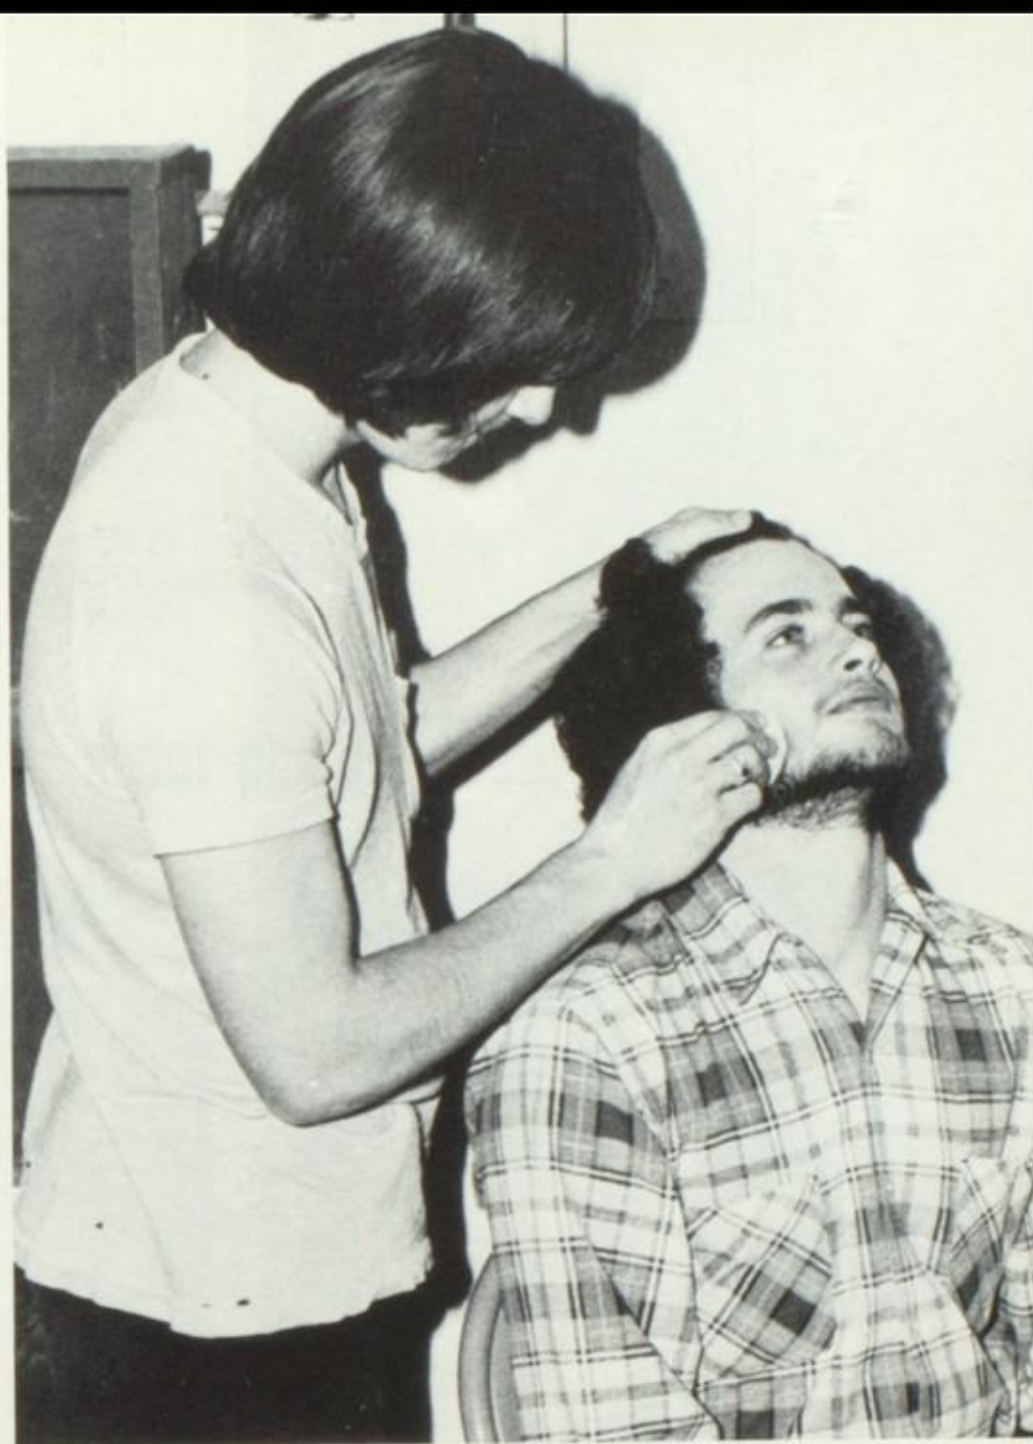

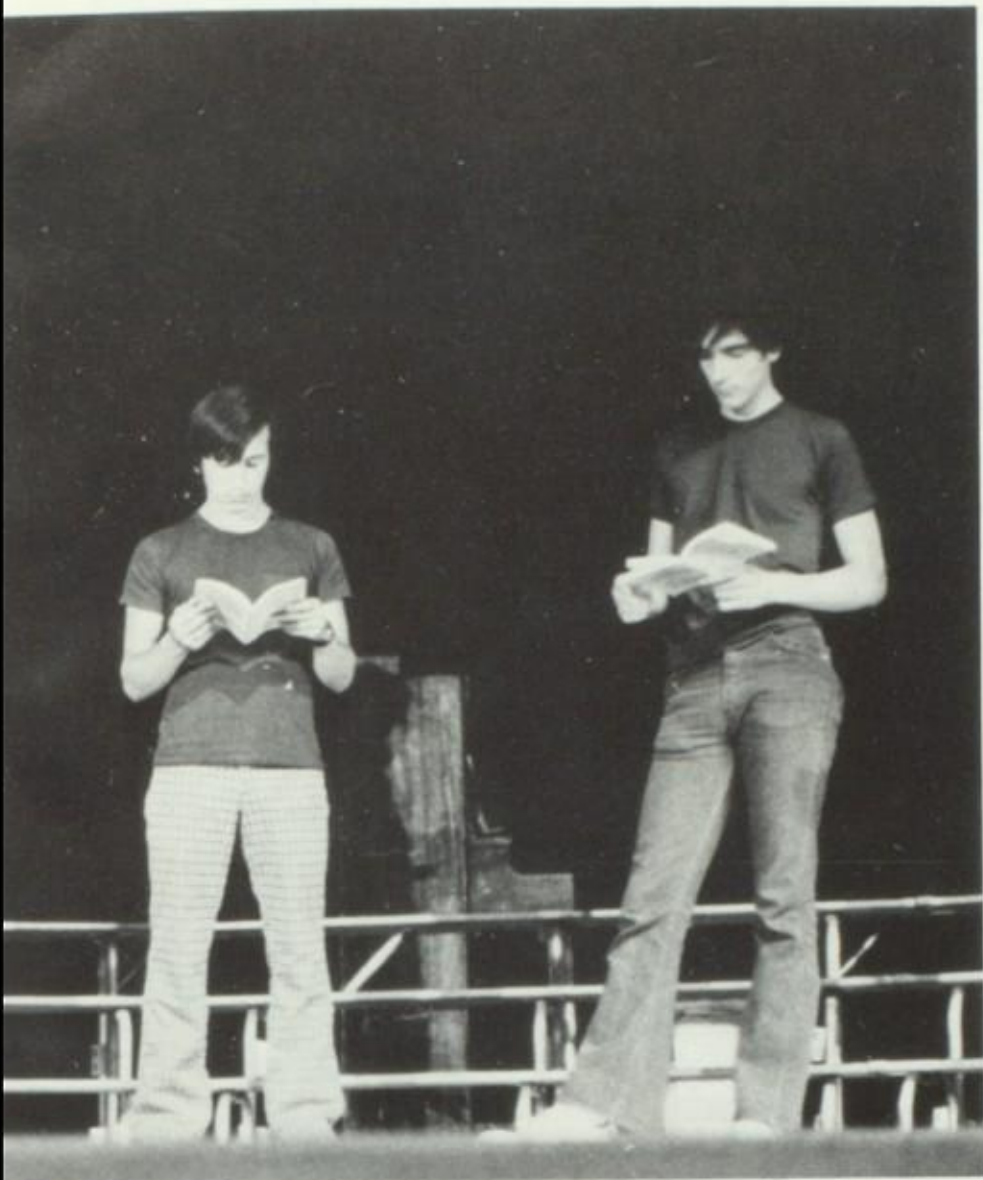

The Thespians club was open to any student with an interest in Drama. The school club had a membership with the National Thespians Club, and awarded points were given according to the National Thespians scales.

Points were awarded according to what the members did during the plays, such as acting, directing, or being a business manager. Mrs. Judy Davidson and Mr. Allen McCullough were the advisors. Randy Miller was the president; Carey Daniels, vice-president; and Debbie McKinney was the secretary-treasurer.

The members of Thespians present were, in the first row: Randy Miller, Tim Lethlean, Hunter Smith, Mike Cain, Joe Stratton, Steve Haney, Brian Cordell, Max McAdams, and Kevin Pullen.

Thespian awards were given to: Dean Owens, best actor; Julie York; best actress; Dave Kloss; best supporting actor; and Marie Goodwin; best supporting actress. Drama members voted and the ballots were tallied with the above results.

Quilldriver uses mailing tubes

The Quilldriver staff and workers strove to put out the best Quilldriver ever. The Quilldriver is a book created from literary contributions made by students from Baker High.

Students were to submit their work to the Quilldriver boxes in their English classes. These pieces of poetry, short stories, artwork, and photography were then gathered up and critiqued by K.D. Adair, Jeanine Campbell, and Debbie Wynn. The ones they selected were then given to the editors Donna Tholen and Donita Entermille, who were in charge of getting things typed.

Along with typing things up, Donna and Donita were in charge of choosing paper colors and getting it printed by Baker County I.E.D. and Mr. Jon Croghan. Jodi Ahrens, Phillip Lochard, and Chris Ritch were first-year journalism members who helped on the Quilldriver as workers.

The Photograph Club was designed for students to learn more about their camera, and taking and developing pictures. The advisors were Mrs. Janet Groat and Mr. Vaughn Folkman.

The Club members had several projects such as taking pictures, developing film, printing pictures and dry mounting them. They raised money by baked food sales, and charging to develop film and printing pictures in the journalism darkroom. Some of the money went toward a new enlarger lens for the journalism staff and for Photography Club needs.

The club members were also involved in an educational program which included films on such things as cameras, photography techniques, and film developing.

At left: Getting into the Bicentennial spirit, Photography Club members gather around an old Graphlex camera. Although the camera is quite old, it still works, even though it hasn't been used for the last 4 or 5 years. The Photography Club members pictured clockwise from the left are: Dinna Tholen, Deb Pilcher, Curt Edwards, Mike Castoldi, Dave Duncan, Carol Tholen, and Donita Entermille. Not pictured are Tom Lotz and Joe Stephens.

Rodeo Club rides hard

This year the Rodeo Club worked hard and rode hard trying to place in the rodeos and maybe go on to the state and national finals. They went to three rodeos before the end of the school year, one in John Day, Rufus, and Madras.

The Club was to go to Pendleton and Vale rodeos and the state finals in Prineville. The four placers with the most points would then go on to the national finals in Sulfer, Louisiana.

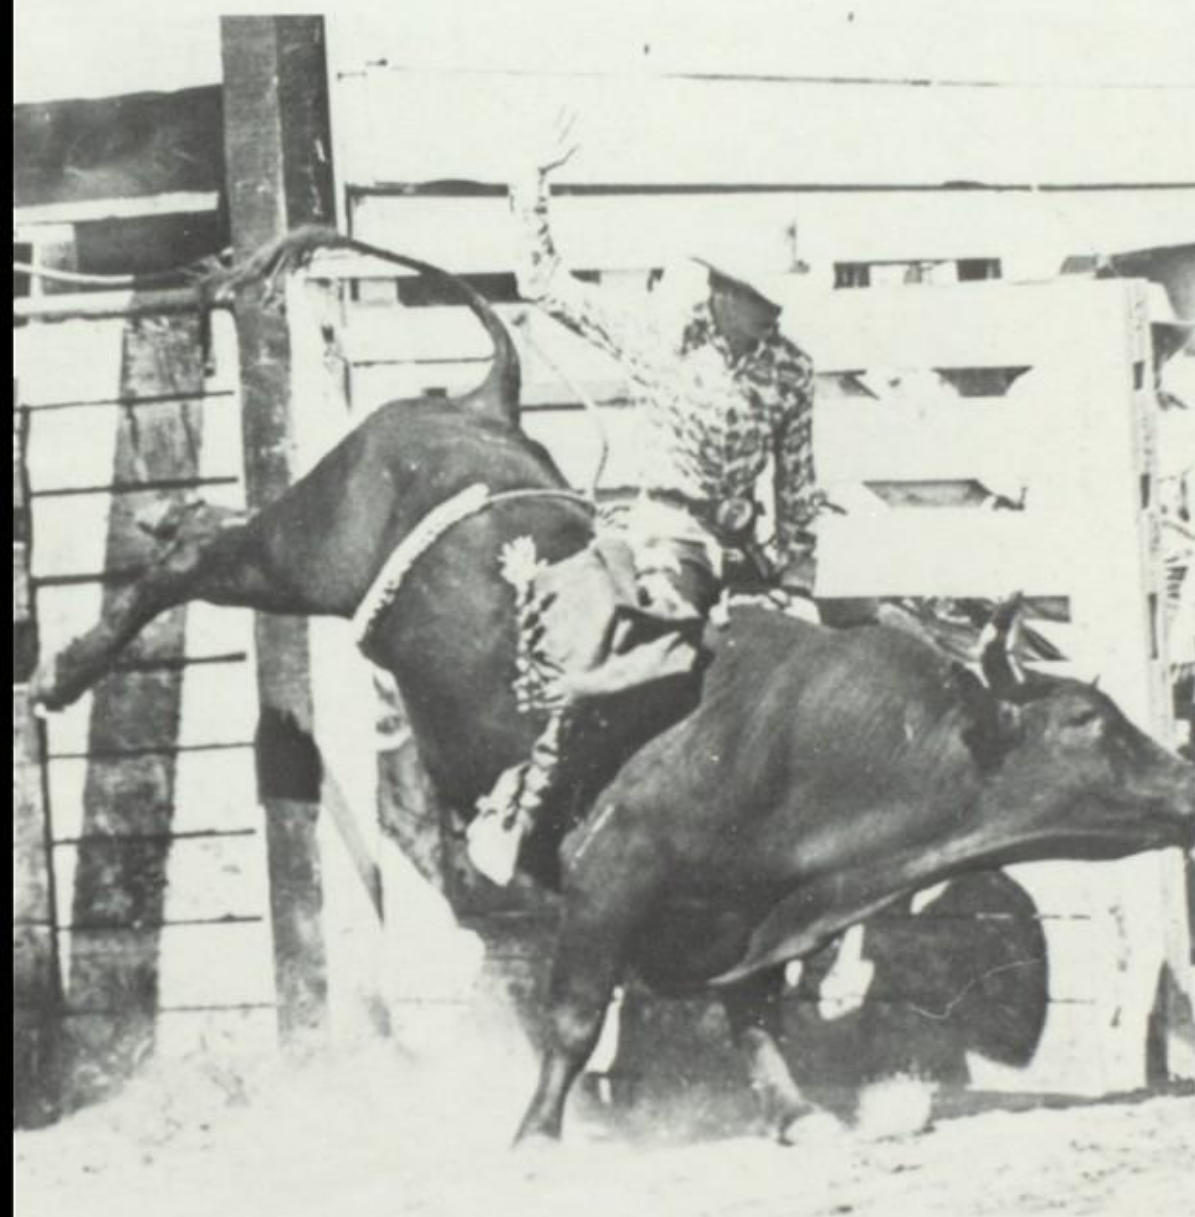

There were seven students competing in the rodeos: Cliff Schoeningh, Bret Turner, Ray Sagner, and Mike Miller, who were all competing in bulls and bareback riding; Arlen Driggers, bulls, bareback riding, calf roping, and bulldogging; Edie Kee and Dixie Driggers, barrel races, pole bending, and goat tying.

The advisors, or coaches, for Rodeo Club were Howard Driggers and Sonny VanCleave. The officers were: Arlen Driggers, president; Cliff Schoeningh, vice-president; Dixie Driggers, secretary; Beth Harrell, treasurer; and Ray Sagner, Sergeant at arms.

Above: Ray Sagner rides a bull named Tar Baby in a high school rodeo. Ray also competes in "bares" which is a slang term for bareback riding.

Howard Driggers, a local rancher, has given a lot to the club. He has worked with each member and has improved the ability of the club to perform better and better in each rodeo.

Top: JoAnn Corley competes in bareback riding in the all-girls rodeo in Enterprise. Girls riding has not entered into high school rodeo as of yet but may in the future. Top left: Arlen Driggers dogs a steer while his father, Howard, acts as hazer and coach.

Farmland leased by FFA

This year the FFA club leased three acres of land, located at the end of College St., from the Catholic Church. The land was the site for the old Catholic Cemetery and there was a lone tombstone in the field that was not to be removed.

Two sophomores and new members of the club, Mark Luker and Dan Curts were in charge of the field. They took charge of planting, caring for and harvesting the crop. This was to prepare them and give them experience to become a farmer. Other projects were the FFA slave sale in which members of the club were sold to the public to do an eight hour job for one day. The proceeds, 1,165 dollars, were used for the annual banquet, held the beginning of May and for sending delegates to state conventions.

Above FFA officers are: standing, Scott Warner, sentinel; Bret Turner; reporter; Lorrin Lissman, treasurer; Cheryl Bunch; secretary; Dean Defrees, vice-president; and Arlen Driggers, president.

FHA prepares for the future

FHA planned trips to Ceder Manor during the year to help and visit the residents. They also made a trip to Vale for the October district meeting.

The members not present for the picture were: Mollie Brown, Robin Martin, Karen Colton, and Barbara Bell.

FBLA views computers

FBLA was very active during its first year at BHS. They toured Ellingsons Lumber and were able to learn the facts about how computers work.

Eight members including Mary Jo Hansen, Susan Daugherty, Deb Swelling, Nancy Colton, Karen Kolb, Dixie Driggers, Mrs. Linda Knave, and Mrs. Sally Read, advisor, went to Portland to compete in the State Leadership Conference. They competed in the ten key adding machine, accounting, stenography, and a spelling bee. Dixie placed third in the spelling bee which qualified her to go to the national finals in Washington, D.C. in June.

Other activities for the club were putting on a card party, having a jewelry sale, and the largest elk antler contest.

Linda Knave and Sue Martin were community advisors for the club.

Rifle Club places first

The Rifle Club this year did very well. The team of Bob Adams, Tim Adams, and Randy Buholts, took first place in Boise at the National Rifle Association Sectional Match. The team also placed first in League.

Bob Adams won the outstanding shooters trophy, and was also invited to the Olympic tryouts in Phoenix, Arizona in late June.

Baker has two teams, a first and second, which are part of the ten team Blue Mountain League.

AFS hosts students

American Field Service (AFS) is a year-round club to promote the exchange of students to and from all foreign countries. Anyone willing to work with this group and be active in this club is invited to join.

Baker High's AFS Club, with the help of advisors Mr. Ross Fritz and Mrs. Eloise Dielman, sponsored many varied activities. These included selling Christmas cards, the annual orange and grapefruit sale, a dance, operating the candy counter, AFS Week, as well as sponsoring various potlucks and picnics for exchange students and adults.

Early in January, Lynn Edmundson returned from a year in Johannesburg, South Africa. In March of this year Mary Pat Colvin was sent to Thailand to spend a year. Baker High also hosted six foreign exchange students for shorter periods of time. They were Fredrico Ran, Romeo Papini, and Juan Abdula from El Salvador; Juana Reyes and Delores Lopez from Nicaragua; and Jan Aronson from Sweden.

Mary Pat Colvin, junior, was chosen by AFS to go to Thailand to spend a year. She was chosen for her good health, personality, ability to adapt to different situations, and varied interests.

Ski Club attends races at Anthony Lakes

A new organization to Baker High this year was Ski Club. The members spent most of their time telling other people about the club and inviting them to join.

The club was designed not only for those who like to ski, but also for those who were eager to learn. The members themselves did not teach the newcomers to ski, as this was left to the instructors at Anthony Lakes.

Ski Club attended two ski races with other schools competing, as well as two regular trips to Anthony Lakes.

Hi-Y sponsors Bulldog Breakfast

Hi-Y is a group of students who are interested in the government and its improvements. They met twice a month this year in the Baker High Commons, at the YMCA, or for breakfast meetings.

Hi-Y members were involved in community activities such as YMCA, and working with the United Nations Children's Fund Drive. They participated in recreational activities such as hiking, swimming, and helping to teach YMCA youngsters how to wrestle and play ball.

They also attended a Pre-Legislation in Portland and Legislation in Salem. These are mock legislation sessions to give these and other students from the state of Oregon a chance to write their own bills and introduce them to the two houses and to the Governor.

This year they operated the candy counter and sponsored the Bulldog Breakfast.

Honor Society has Picnic

National Honor Society is a group of students who maintain a grade point average of 3.33 or better, and show scholarship, leadership, character, and are a service to others and the community. This club is sponsored by the National association of Secondary School Principals.

Students who graduate as Honor Society members maintain this honor for a lifetime and, have a good reference for scholarships and college acceptance.

Honor Society members have enjoyed such things as a Christmas party, initiation parties for new members, and a spring picnic. They also have had baked food sales, operated the candy counter, and contributed to YMCA and to American Field service.

Girls inducted into Letter Club

The 1975-76 Letter Club had a few changes. First off, the name was changed from Lettermen to Letter Club, the second, (the probable reason for the first change) was the addition of girls to the club.

Although the boys in the club outnumbered the girls, the girls were still there. The requirements to join were the same: earn a letter in any sport. The initiation was also the same.

For the initiation the students having a letter and wanting to join the club had to shine 20 shoes at 10 cents a pair until they raised $2.00.

There were over thirty in the club and they expect to grow in the coming years due to the addition of the girls.

Students display talent in special organizations

Special organizations gave students a chance to participate in the drama, chorus, and talent section of BHS.

The Thespians of 1975-76 put on the fall play, "David and Lisa" and the spring musical "The Music Man."

The music department consisted of the jazz band, orchestra, girls choir, mixed choir, ensemble, swing ensemble, a quartet and the marching and stage bands.

Students became actively involved in the talent assembly by helping during tryouts. The emcee's helped to entertain the faculty and student body. Talent included songs, skits, piano pieces and a comedy team.

BHS presents 'David and Lisa'

This year's fall play was "David and Lisa." It was a modern drama about two mentally disturbed teenagers trying to cope with their problems and anxieties. The play was directed by Mrs. Judith Davidson and assisted by Michelle Story, senior. Kevin Hauser, junior, was put in charge of the lights and all the publicity was handled by Debbie McKinney, senior. Make-up was a large part of this play and the members of the make-up crew were Keren Coppersmith, Debbie McKinney, Jeff Rouse, Judy McMillan, and Susan Basche.

Front row: Willi Kenworthy, Judy Adair, Hunter Smith, Mary Pryse, Carey Daniels, Dave Kloss and Joe Stratton.

'Music Man' opens

56 people made up the cast of this year's musical, "The Music Man." Julie York and Dean Owens played the leading parts.

The musical was directed by Mrs. Judith Davidson and Mr. Dave Miller. Mr. Tom Hope was the producer and Mrs. Virginia Gubler choreographed the play.

The technical crew consisted of Kevin Pullen, lights; Mike Hopkins, stage manager; Debbie McKinney, Karen Coppersmith, Lori Sorenson, and Mollie Brown, make-up crew.

Trio wins talent assembly

A singing trio of Dave Kloss, Dean Owens and Mike Cain sang their way to first place at the talent show. They sang "Wildflower" and "The Boxer." Second place went to another trio, Sally Johnson, Carol Prowell, and Donna Munsell. They played the piano. Jerry and Tim Endicott took third with a drum, bass guitar duet.

Greg Rode and Don Curtis were the masters of ceremonies. Kelly Bunch and Gundula Ogston were the talent show chairpersons, pictured right.

Other acts included: Kathy Grahl, pantomime; Joe Stratton, piano; Phillippe Lochard, piano and singing; Sandy Russell, Leslie Duffey, Cheryl Duncan, and Sheryl McKinnis, singers.

Prom honors seniors

Pirates Paradise

Another year goes passing by,
 Another Prom is Here,
 To some this brings a joyous smile,
 To others, brings a tear.
 For four years you have tread a path,
 From dawn to setting sun,
 But now the path gets steeper,
 And the climb is just begun.
 We're very glad to know you,
 We'll miss you when you've gone,
 And to the class of '76',
 We dedicate our prom.

The above poem was written in honor of the senior class. The prom is put on each year by the junior class. The juniors choose the band, make money to put on the prom, decorate, and choose a theme for the prom. This year the theme was Pirates Paradise.

Freshmen girls worked at the desert table. They were Mary Pryse, LeAnn Wakefield, Linda Goodwin and Stephanie Cross.

Bulldog spirit, let's hear it!

Bulldog spirit ranges from Rally squad to pep night to drill team.

Rally squad leads BHS in chants, while drill team provides the halftime entertainment. This year Baker High had spirit raising events such as Hat Day, Boot Day, and tie 'em' up day, when everyone wears bows, strings, or ribbons.

Pep night tries to include everyone with crowd raising cheers, class written songs and skits. The big highlight of pep night is the crowning of the pep queen, a senior girl with the most spirit.

Flag girls and baton twirlers also play a big part in promoting spirit in Baker High.

Varsity, J.V. and Freshmen cheerleaders put a lot of money into their elected positions.

The yell leaders start practice in May after the school elections and practice through the summer.

They make money for uniforms and summer camp by selling root beer, showing cars, and selling band tickets.

This year's song queen was Terri Warnock. She was joined by Nancy Wilson, and Julie York, seniors, Kelley Young and Edith McClanahan, juniors.

Hardwork and long hours of preparations were put into Pep Night. No one, however, was in more suspense than the princesses waiting to see who would be chosen queen. The pictures below from left tell the story.

Letterclub president, Tony Evans was the first to know who was the new Pep Queen. Tony walked up and down the aisle and finally came to Julie York, who was voted by her classmates to be the most spirited.

Tony then escorted Julie to her throne where she was crowned and kissed by head football coach, Mr. Wayne Looney. Julie then paused to fix her crown before she sat down to reign over the nights festivities.

Afterwards, Queen Julie stopped a moment to pose with her flowergirl, Michelle Holliday and crownbearer, Lane Schumacher.

Sports commentator honored at BHS

Sports Commentator Ken Holden received an award this year for his many years service to Baker High. Mr. Holden started announcing for B.H.S. football and basketball games around 1940. He went into the Army soon after then came back in 1945 and he has been announcing for B.H.S. ever since.

Mr. Holden has announced B.H.S. sports along with being a staff announcer, and advertising salesman for KBKR radio station.

Letter Club along with student council presented the award to Mr. Holden from the whole student body. He received the award at a basketball game between LaGrande and Baker.

Tom Higgins, student body president, commented "Ken Holden is a man dedicated to his job and has promoted the B.H.S. sports by broadcasting them."

Volleyball has good year

Mrs. Carol Rodman coached this year's girls volleyball team. She said "The girls worked very hard."

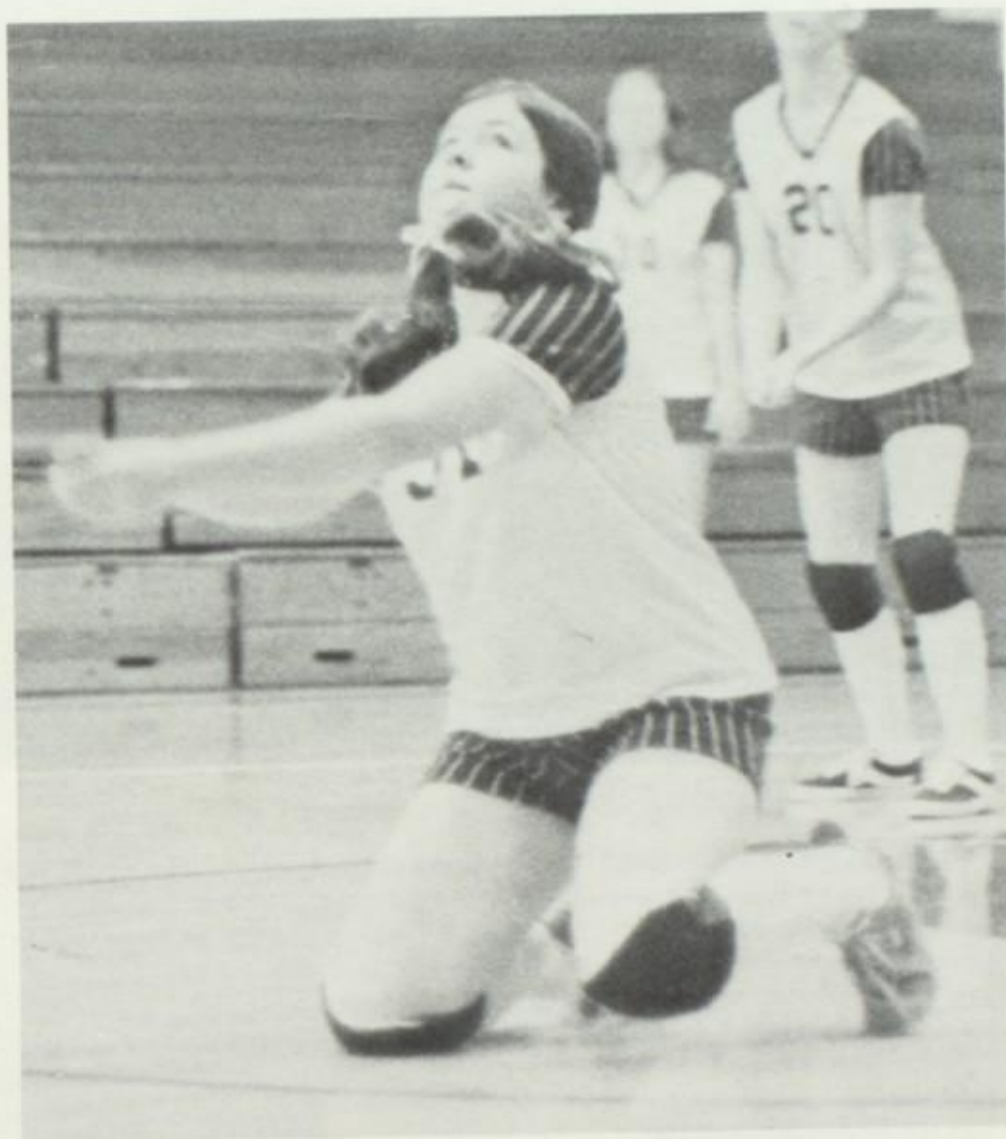

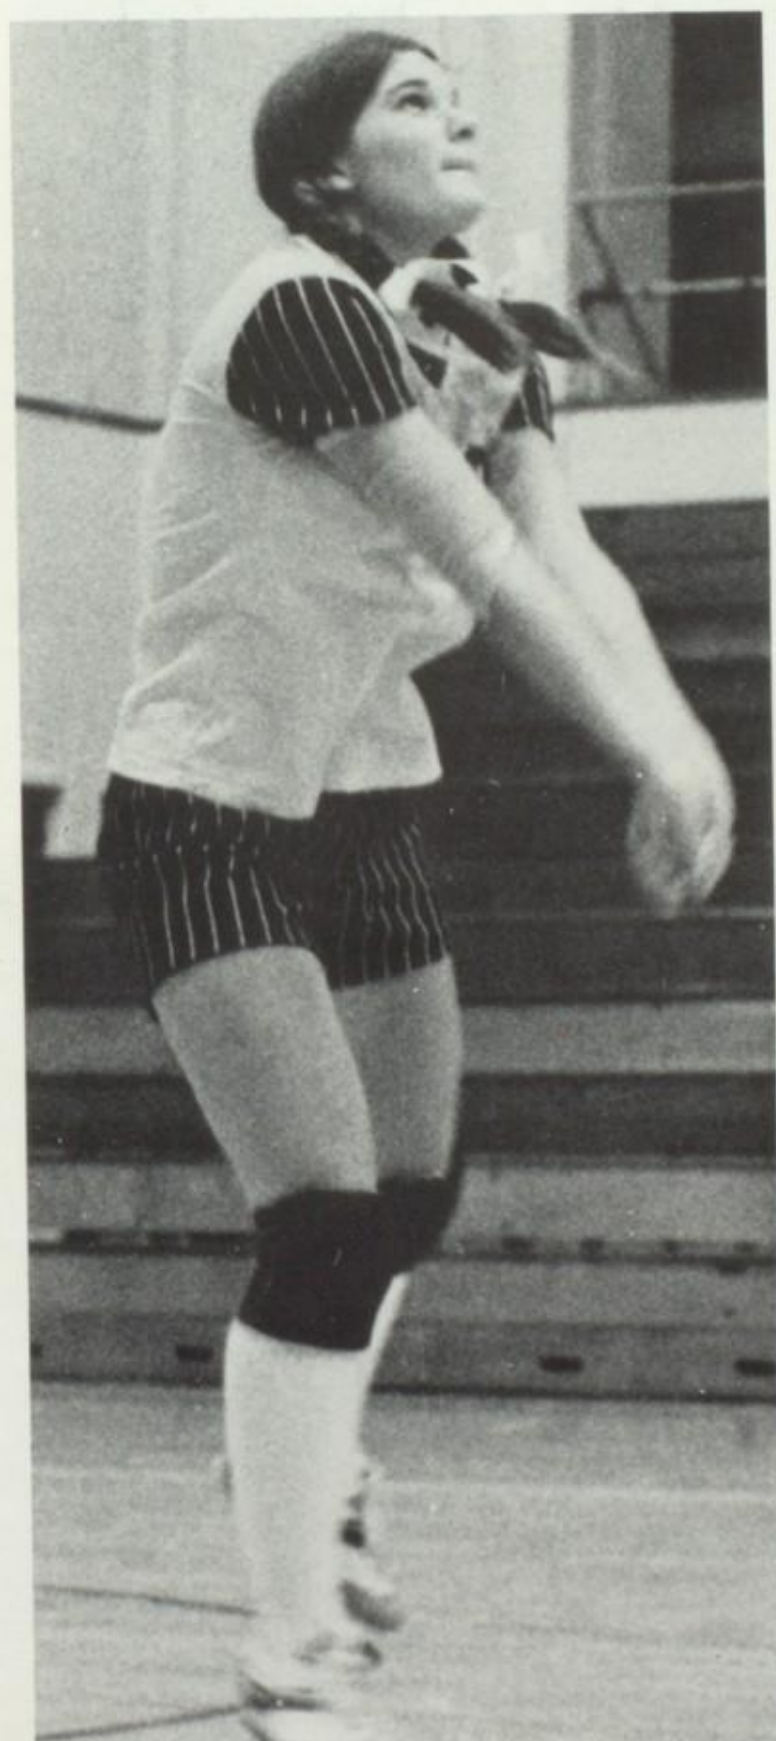

There were three teams, and all three did a good job, according to the coach. Freshmen through seniors made up the team. The girls were divided into A, B, and C squads according to ability. The win-loss record for the season is as follows: A squad had a 5-4, B squad had a 2-7, and the C squad had a 8-1 record.

Cross country has first season

Baker's first crosscountry team consisted of Scott Warner, Ken Nelson, Bob Couch, Kent Olsen, Paul Weatherspoon, Eddy Hibbard, Tom Gargan, Patty Stephens, and Mary Pat Colvin. Below: Ken Nelson waits for the results from Coach Paul Wallace.

This was Baker's starting year in crosscountry running. Crosscountry consists of participants running 5000 meters of a previously picked course. It's for both boys and girls who have plenty of speed, endurance and determination.

"This year's team was very enthusiastic and hopeful," said Coach Paul Wallace, "but we hope for more participation in the future. A win-loss record of 0-7 brought out the fact that we were inexperienced, but they should do better next year."

Baker starts gymnastics

Baker started gymnastics this year with Miss Pat Jacobson coaching. "It was a building year. We only won one meet, but hope to do better next year," she said.

The team was a young team consisting mostly of freshmen and sophomores. The participating gymnasts are top row from left: Dana Burchtorf, Pat Rengert, middle row: Leanne Rood, Miss Jacobson, Penny Stricker, bottom row: Suzanne Griffith, Vicki Welling, Brenda Bennehoff, Cindy Poe. Mary Pryse, left, freshman, concentrates on perfecting her technique on the uneven parallel bars, in the picture on the left.

It's "on to state" for girls basketball

The girls' basketball team journeyed on to state at Portland this year after winning the Intermountain sub-district playoffs. Miss Pat Jacobson, coach, said, "Even though the girls did not win at state I am very proud of them. This was their first year at state, where all the other teams had previous experience."

There were eight girls on the varsity team, which consisted of one senior, two juniors and five sophomores. Joan Vaughan, sophomore, was the team captain. The total win-loss record for the whole season was 12-8.

The girls' junior varsity basketball team had a good season with a win-loss record of 10-3, in the intermountain conference league. Miss Pat John Jacobson, coach, said, "The girls learned a lot and will be very helpful next year."

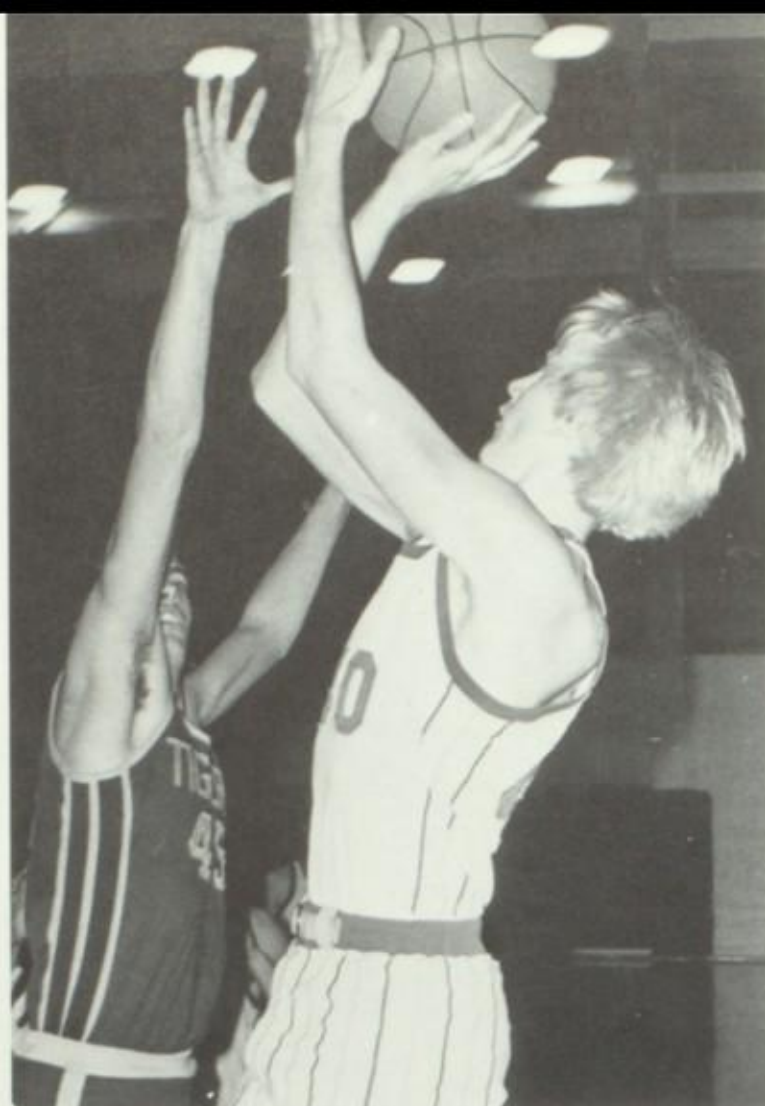

Sam Lissman and Denise Thomas were chosen team captains. Dana Burchtorf, Cindy Poe, Denise Thomas and Patty Troy went with the varsity team to state.

Baker Varsity fights until end for chance at state title

Baker's varsity basketball team had a very respectable season. A win-loss record of 14-7 showed Baker's skill and determination. "We improved in every aspect of the game," said Coach Don Schumacher, "we really worked as a team. Also, our younger members showed a lot of skill which will definitely help next year's season."

Wayne Haynes, Baker's 6 foot 3 inch center, had a great year. "Tex" broke a one-game scoring record with 40 points, previously held by Oliver McCord-1954, and Darrell Ross-1972. Haynes was also elected to the first team of the intermountain conference along with Dan Curtis, junior forward, who was elected to the second team.

"Strong start, slow finish."

The junior varsity basketball team ended this year's season with a 7-9 win-loss record.

"We had a strong start," said Coach Dave Sazama, "But injuries hit some of our key players. But all in all, the team showed a lot of skill and should have no problem in taking over for the leaving seniors."

Close scores like 53-54 against Hunington, 54-57 against LaGrande, and 56-59 against Pendleton brought excitement and disappointment to players as well as the spectators.

Sophomores get practice

Baker's sophomore basketball team had a 2-10 win-loss record. "I think that this year's season was a good experience for the boys, and I think that they should all make very good basketball players," said Coach Tom Hope. Left: Gary Deardorff prepares to pass the ball for better positioning on the court. Kerry Bratcher shoots while Scott Hester goes in for a possible rebound.

Rookies show good outlook

"This year's freshmen basketball team proved to me that they really can play basketball," said coach Bill Ott, "I was really surprised by their determination." This year's players were, top to bottom, l-r: Dave Hobson, Cooper Higgins, Perry Jacobs, Brad Taie, Curt Edwards, Scott Brookhart, Craig Ward, Colin Scarbrough, Ken Downing, Chris Young and Stan Runnels.

Wrestlers play for experience

Baker High wrestlers spent the 75-76 school year "learning and losing."

This was Baker's first year in wrestling and they had a hard time competing against schools that had many years experience.

"The kids had an amazing amount of progress for their starting year," said Coach Chuck Holliday, "they also showed a lot of effort and pride."

Varsity baseball gets new pitching machine

This year's Varsity Baseball team, coached by Ron Nelson, started the season in a slump, but had several outstanding games. Their win-loss record was 6-6. The team members were (left-right; top-bottom), Duffy Miles, Al Endicott, Matt Ellingson, Kerry Bratcher, Steve Piersall, Craig Calder, Pat Rhea, Tim Endicott, Randy Dodson, Don Curtis, Garth Brandaw, Jim Grove, Mike Smith, Gene Bloom, and Coach Ron Nelson. One accomplishment of the baseball teams was the purchase of a $600 pitching machine. The machine was paid for by donations from local merchants. Below left: Duffy Miles s-t-r-e-t-c-h-e-s for the ball. Right: Mr. Nelson tries out the new pitching machine.

"The junior varsity baseball team had a very short season, but it was filled with excitement and valuable experience," remarked Coach Wayne Erickson. The win-loss record of the team was 3-6. The team members were (left to right; bottom to top): Kim Mitchell, Dennis Heller, Gary Deardorff, Rod Speelman, Jeff Petrie, Scott Hester, Erin Anderson, Lyle Cambell, Ron Welter, Al Hacket, Tim Oliver, Mike Castoldi, Trino Navarro, Randy Culley, Chriss Mack and Coach Wayne Erickson.

Girls track strong in field events

Girls' track was under the guidance of Mrs. Carol Rodman, coach, and Mrs. Lisa Coughlin, assistant coach. "We lost all of our meets, but there were many personal victories accomplished," said Mrs. Rodman. Deb Spivey broke the shot put record of 33' 10" with 36' 8½". Deb has broken the record twice.

The following girls did outstanding in their events: Denise Thomas; hurdles; Arlene Curtis and Susan Eddy; field events; and Diana Markgraf and Linda Munsell, running. Mrs. Rodman remarked, "We were strong in field events."

Right: Mrs. Carol Rodman, coach, keeps her eye on track members as they are doing their events.

Boys track team exceeds predictions of this years season

"Baker's track season was quite a bit better than our predicitons," according to Coach Don Hunt, "especially the younger athletes. They really showed some good qualities." Baker's team had ten track meets in all, placed in every one of them, and won in two. Coach Hunt is at right.

Below: Bob Demastus strains to get all the distance he can when throwing the javelin. Left: Scott Brookhart, sophomore, breaks the wire after a grueling mile run. Opposite page right: Eric Johnson concentrates on his discus style. Left: Stan Runnels "takes off" for the finish line.

Two outstanding members chosen as Mr. and Ms. Track

Don Floyd, junior, was picked for Mr. Track. Don competed in the 100 yard dash with 10.5 seconds, 220 with 23.8 seconds, last runner for the sprint relay and threw the javelin 184 feet. Coach Don Hunt said, "Don's best chance to go to state is in throwing the javelin. He threw it 3 feet short of the school record.

Right: Don Floyd, as he is taking off his sweats before running the 100 yard dash.

Patti Stephens, senior, was named Ms. Track for 1976. Patti was active in track with 64.1 seconds in the individual 440 race and broke the school record in the high jump, jumping 5'2½". Patti was also the team captain.

Below: Patti Stephens practices jumping over the high jump.

Tony Evans was named Mr. Senior Track and Outstanding Boy Athlete at the Senior Awards Assembly.

Golfers swing into action

The golf team with Mr. Dale Austin, coach, had a good season. Both girls and boys were welcomed into golf this year. The boys varsity team had a win-loss record of 11-2. "They were very competitive and willing to work hard," Mr. Austin remarked. The varsity team consisted of Dan Brooks, Bart Combs, Mike Erickson, Mike Mahoney and Greg Rode. All five varsity members were on the golf team last year.

As it was the girls first year, only six came out. They have a win-loss record of 1-1. Mr. Austin said, "The girls played good, have improved and are obtaining more and more confidence."

Under the supervision of Mr. Wayne Looney and Pam Looney the tennis team competed for the first time. "The kids were inexperienced, but they played all right for it being their first year to compete," remarked Mr. Looney.

The girls team win-loss record was 0-5 with Tammy Johnson winning the only individual game. Eileen Burns, Katy Fuller and Tammy Johnson competed in individuals. Kris Borgen along with Teri Sagner made up a doubles team while Trish Long and Kelley Young composed another.

The win-loss record for the boys team as a whole was 1-4. For individual scores John Wilson and Dan Rhea won 2, Anthony Bailey, Kent Clarke and Tim Lethlean won 1 and Jim DeMastus with Ken McKinney in doubles won 1.

Madge Evans retires after nine years at BHS

Madge Evans, longtime cook at B.H.S., retired at the close of the school year. Madge has worked in the B.H.S. cafeteria for nine years.

Her main duties in the cafeteria are cooking, planning menus, ordering food, and mainly overseeing the kitchen. Before working in the cafeteria, Madge was a housewife out on a ranch.

Georgia Conklin, one of the other cooks, commented on Madge, "I enjoyed working with her, she dedicates a lot of her own to the cafeteria. She is a tireless worker and loves the kids."

School Board approves mural on BHS

Baker District 5-J School Board approved and paid for half of the mural put up on the south side of the girls gym. The student council paid the rest. They also remodeled the auditorium in the central building of the middle school.

Mr. Brown, Mr. Snook oversee BHS activities

This year Mr. Brown and Mr. Snook have been very busy helping all the new students and teachers adjust to BHS. They have also been planning a summer school which was held during the summer for the students who have difficulty with and failed to pass any competency or required subject.

Cooks and janitors help around BHS

This year the cooks surveyed students on which kinds of food they liked the most. Chicken fried steak was their favorite.

The janitors did a lot this year by keeping the school neat and clean. They also helped move the bleachers into the stadium.

Below the janitors Herschel Wood, Robert Ellis, Carl Comstock, Bill Cassidy and Dick McClarrin sweep up around the school.

Yesterday, today and tomorrow

My childhood friend

We've grown from our tricycles to our hot souped up cars,
We've given up our fantasies and faced up to who we are.
From the sand box castles
and playground swings, out of our world of make believe leaving behind childhood dreams.

We were young then and we played childhood games
it seems not so long ago, but you, and I, and so much has changed.

Our hours of play have turned to work with not much time to spare, not at all like those younger days
when days had hardly a care.
It seems a shame to leave it all behind with the laughter and smiles we gave, but like all the days that we live
none other will ever be the same.

Age is a matter of acceptance teaching us more as the years pass by, the reality that we live today
came from yesterday's laughs and cries.
Childhood days spent together hold memories that won't end, they made me what I am today and left to me, a special friend.
